Effective Use of Space
For Educational Interpreters
Saturday, February 2, 2008
8:45 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

This workshop will focus on how to effectively use space and spatial placement when interpreting in K-12 and post-secondary settings. Participants will practice voice-to-sign interpreting and transliterating with special focus on working with maps, graphs, charts and numbers.

Julie Simon has been an American Sign Language/English Interpreter for over 25 years and an interpreter educator for over 17 years, having taught in both pre-service and in-service settings on a wide range of topics, and holds RID certification (CI & CT). Prior to opening The Language Door in March 2007, she served for over 11 years as Administrator for the Western Region (formerly Region X) Interpreter Education Center at Western Oregon University.

Workshop will be presented in English.
Interpreters provided if requested by January 22, 2008.
