Conquering the Mountain! An Evening with Miriam Richards

Friday, February 20, 2009
6:15 – 8:30 p.m.

Miriam Richards was born Deaf, and despite facing the challenges of living with Multiple Sclerosis, she is determined to reach her goal of climbing the highest points in all 50 states. She has successfully climbed to the peaks in 49 states and will be making her second attempt to climb Denali in Alaska in May 2009.

Miriam currently teaches ASL at Western Oregon University and travels as much as possible. She enjoys sharing her amusing, exhilarating, and sometimes risky, stories of her adventures in the great outdoors. Her life story has also been published in a book called "High Point of Resistance: The Miriam Richards Story".

Please join us for a fun evening of adventure with Miriam as she recounts her adventures. This evening will also serve as a fund-raising event for her upcoming climb in Alaska. Wrist Bands ($5: Go Deaf Denali in Spirit) and her book ($24.95) will be available for purchase. All proceeds from the wrist bands and books will go toward her climb.

Presented in ASL. Interpreters not provided
