Fred Farrior, born deaf, holds a BA from the Oregon College of Education and an MA from Western Oregon University. He taught at the Oregon School for the Deaf for 28 years until his retirement in 2003. He has taught ASL classes at WOU (18 years), South Salem High School (7 years), and Linfield College (10 years), as well as through Cyber School (ASL online courses) with the Lane Regional Program. Fred has served as an ASL Conference speaker, the Proficiency-based Admission Standards System (PASS) assessor for ASL, and as a Board member of the Confederation in Oregon for Language Teaching (COFLT). He was instrumental in convincing the Oregon Board of Education to accept ASL as a second language in the Oregon's public schools and in working with the Oregon Legislative when it passed legislation supporting ASL in 1995.
