How to Earn RID CEUs
Wednesday, June 17, 2009; 5:45 pm – 8:30 pm

RID and NAD Certified interpreters are required to earn continuing education units (CEUs) through the RID Certification Maintenance Program (CMP). RID Associate members have the option of earning CEUs through the Associate Continuing Education Tracking (ACET) system. This workshop will provide an overview of the RID CEU system and the various ways in which interpreters can earn CEUs. (0.25 RID CEUs, General studies.)

Helpful Hints for Reading Fingerspelling
Wednesday, June 24, 2009; 5:45 pm – 9:00 pm

Helpful Hints for Producing Fingerspelling
Wednesday, July 1, 2009; 5:45 pm – 9:00 pm

These workshops will provide participants with an opportunity to understand the role and function of fingerspelling in ASL, with particular attention given to lexicalized fingerspelling (i.e. loan signs), fingerspelling used during introductions, geographic fingerspelled terms (i.e. states), and nonce fingerspelling and abbreviations. These sessions will include discussions about what kind of information gets fingerspelled and when, strategies for understanding source texts, what to do when you cannot ask the speaker for repetition, and how to give support to/get support from a team.

On June 24, 2009, participants will have opportunity to practice ASL-to-English interpreting. (0.3 RID CEUs, Professional Studies.)

On July 1, 2009, participants will have opportunity to practice English-to-ASL interpreting. (0.3 RID CEUs, Professional Studies.)

Workshops will be presented in English.
ASL interpreters will be provided if requested by June 10, 2009.
